

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

National Investors Promotes Brandi Abercrombie to Senior Vice President

Austin, Texas – Brandi Abercrombie has been promoted to senior vice president – Texas operations and education with National Investors Title Insurance Company, a subsidiary of Investors Title Company. In this role, Ms. Abercrombie is responsible for operations and business development in addition to her continued leadership with the delivery of high-quality educational programs designed to support Texas-based title agent business, marketing, and continuing education needs.

Before joining the National Investors team in 2020, Brandi served as an agency manager for a national title insurance underwriter, assisting agents across Texas, and, for more than 15 years prior to that role, worked for independent agents in positions related to all aspects of the title and underwriting business, including customer service and escrow operations, curative and exam work, and extensive management duties as a closing manager for a large title company.

Brandi holds the Certified Escrow Settlement Professional (CESP) and Certified Title Insurance Professional (CTIP) designations from the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) and is recognized as a National Title Professional (NTP) by the American Land Title Association. She is a qualified real estate instructor with the Texas Real Estate Commission and is both a traditional and online notary with authority to perform remote notarizations in Texas.

“Brandi’s extensive industry knowledge and leadership skills are assets for our Texas agent partners, and we are excited to recognize her valuable contributions with this promotion,” said Tom Berry, executive vice president – market development.

National Investors Title Insurance Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Investors Title Company, a publicly held company whose stock is traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market® (Nasdaq: ITIC).
