

- Goose, LLC is the legal entity who is proposing to purchase the property which must be reported on IRS/FinCEN 8300
 - Since the entity is an LLC, all members must be reported on the IRS/FinCEN8300
- Goose Brother, Inc., as a member of the LLC must be reported along with all its shareholders, Mark, Neil and Sam (even those shareholders holding an interest of less than 25% since they are all through their ownership of Goose Brothers, Inc. a member of the LLC).
- John Smith and Sally Smith must also be reported on IRS/FinCEN 8300 as members of the LLC.

- Goose Brothers, Inc. is the legal entity who is proposing to purchase the property which must be reported on IRS/FinCEN 8300
- John Smith must be reported on IRS/FinCEN 8300 since he holds a greater than 25% ownership interest.
- Sally Smith does not have to be reported on IRS/FinCEN 8300 since she holds less than 25% ownership interest.
- Goose, LLC as an entity does not have to be reported since it is not an individual.
- Mark Smith, Neil Smith and Sam Smith all must be reported since they are members of a LLC who own a greater than 25% ownership interest.